

LOOK AHEAD

CONSERVATIVE MAJORITY

13 December

- Cabinet reshuffle.
- Junior Ministerial appointments confirmed over the weekend/following weeks.

17 - 18 December

- First sitting days of the new Parliament.
- MPs sworn in and re-election of Speaker.

19 December

- Queen's Speech.
- Reintroduction of Bills including Withdrawal Agreement Bill (WAB) and Pensions Bill.

20 or 23 December

- Possible 2nd Reading of WAB and vote on programme motion.
- Christmas recess.

w/c 6 January

- Parliament returns (est).
- Up to 6 days debate on Queen's Speech.
- Remaining stages of WAB.
- Process to reformulate Select Committees begins.

Mid-late January

- WAB to complete passage through Parliament and become law before 31 January.
- Budget (could also be early February).

31 Jan

Current EU exit date

LABOUR MINORITY

13 December

- Talks to establish support for minority Labour Government begin.
- Likely to continue through weekend & into next week.

17 - 18 December

- First sitting days of the new Parliament.
- MPs sworn in and re-election of Speaker.

19 December

- Latest date Queen could approve Labour minority Government before Christmas.
- Possible date for Parliament to rise for Christmas recess.

w/c 6 January

- Parliament returns (est.)
- Negotiation talks may have concluded and new Government formed.

w/c 13 January

- If new Government formed, formal state opening of new Parliament & Queen's Speech could take place this week at earliest.

Mid-late January

- Government seeks extension to Article 50 to hold 2nd ref.
- Labour to seek to renegotiate deal with EU before referendum.
- Budget.